CRAZED PAIR CHOPPED OFF PAL'S HEAD WITH CHAINSAW

EXCLUSIVE
By BRAD CHADWICK

A COUPLE will spend the rest of their lives in prison for killing a pal during a twisted sex game. Michael Hendricks, 42, and Maggie Ybarra, 32, were sentenced for the murder of Kensie Aubry, 32, who they dismembered with a CHAINSAW before burying the remains.

Twit Musk wants to charge fee

ELON Musk has said he will charge people to use Twitter because it is the 'only way to protect against bot accounts'.

Both are fake Twitter accounts which churn out millions of tweets every day.

The billionaire owner of the platform – which Musk is trying to convince people to call X – says users will face a "small monthly payment".

"I'd say the single most important reason we're moving towards having a small monthly payment for use of the X system is that it's the only way I can think of to combat vast armies of bots," Musk said.

"We want it to be a small amount of money."

Furious users have taken to the platform following the news.

"Would be a great excuse to give up using Twitter for good," one user wrote.

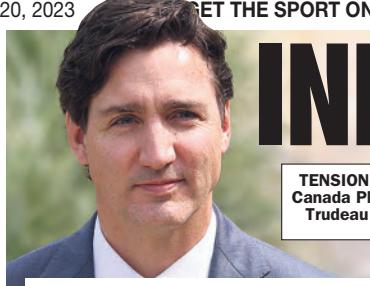

Biggest strike in NHS history

THOUSANDS of NHS consultants walked out on strike yesterday across England in a dispute over pay as the health service braces itself for another wave of industrial action.

Consultants will also walk out today when they will be joined by junior doctors in the first joint strike in NHS history.

Junior doctors, who have held 19 days of strike action since March, will then continue their strike on Thursday and Friday this week.

There will be another joint strike on October 2, 3 and 4.

TENSION:
Canada PM
Trudeau

TENSIONS are rising between India and Canada with fears the two members of the Commonwealth could slide towards WAR!

India has strongly rejected allegations by Canada's PM Justin Trudeau that it had any role in the death of a Canadian Sikh leader. Mr Trudeau accused India of involvement in the murder of Hardeep Singh Nijjar who was shot dead outside a Sikh temple on June 18 in Canada.

He said Canada was looking at "credible allegations potentially linking" the death and the Indian state.

On Tuesday, India expelled a top Canadian diplomat as the row worsened.

That followed Canada's expulsion of Indian diplomat Pavan Kumar Rai over the case. It's believed any clash between the two countries would take place in the mid-Pacific. King Charles, as head of the Commonwealth, is said to be "concerned".

Mr Nijjar, 45, was shot dead by two masked gunmen on a mid-June evening in the busy car park of the Guru Nanak Sikh Gurdwara in Surrey, near Vancouver.

A prominent Sikh leader in British Columbia, he campaigned for Khalistan – the creation of an independent Sikh homeland in the Punjab region of India.

Sikhs are a religious minority that make up about 2% of India's population. Some groups have long called for a separate homeland for Sikhs.

Met rogue probe bans 1,000 cops

MORE than 1,000 Metropolitan Police officers are currently suspended or on restricted duties, as it tries to root out rogue officers.

The crackdown follows convictions of former officers David Carrick, a serial rapist, and murderer Wayne Couzens (above).

The Met's Stuart Cundy said the number of affected officers was almost the size of a small police force, with one in 34 suspended.

He warned that removing all corrupt officers could take years.

In the past year 100 officers have been sacked for gross misconduct – up by 66% on the normal rate.

The 201 officers currently suspended represents a rise from 69 in September 2022.

Some 275 are awaiting a gross misconduct hearing, many of which involved alleged violence against women and girls.

Another 450 are also being investigated for historic allegations of sexual or domestic violence, the force admitted.

New contract for train strimmers

TRAIN operators Avanti West Coast and CrossCountry have been handed long-term contract renewals, the Department for Transport (DfT) has announced.

Transport Secretary Mark Harper said Avanti West Coast is "back on track" after struggling with reliability.

The proportion of its trains that are cancelled has been cut to "as low as 1.1% over the past year", the DfT said.

Its new contract, which starts on October 15, has a maximum term of nine years but can be terminated at any point after three years.

It comes after Avanti West Coast was handed two consecutive six-month contracts and ordered to develop a recovery plan.

PLATFORM 'SUSPENDS MONETISATION' OF COMIC'S ONLINE RANTS

RUSSELL BANNED:
YouTube have taken action

YOUTUBE CUTS OFF BRAND'S DOSH

YOUTUBE has stopped Russell Brand making money on the channel for "violating" its "creator responsibility policy".

The online platform said it was taking action "to protect" its users.

While Brand has not been banned from YouTube, the move will prevent him raking in advertising dosh from his clips. It's believed the suspension of ad revenue could cost Brand up to £1MILLION a year.

Meanwhile, the Metropolitan Police has received a report of an alleged sexual assault in

By COLIN HURST

2003 in the wake of media allegations about the star.

Over the weekend the comedian and actor was accused of rape and sexual assaults between 2006 and 2013, which he denies.

"If a creator's off-platform behaviour harms our users, employees or ecosystem, we take action," said a YouTube spokesperson.

In recent years the former TV and radio personality has re-positioned himself, posting regular video rants about spirituality, politics and, recently, UFOs, to his six million followers.

YouTube's decision applies to "all channels that may be owned or operated" by the 48-year-old, it confirmed.

Allegations

While it noted that bans are rare, it did point to examples including the suspension of adverts from the channels of Slovak internet personality David Dobrik.

The allegations against Brand were made in a joint investigation by the Sunday Times, the Times and Channel 4's Dispatches.

Brand took to his online platforms to deny all claims of misconduct, saying he was the subject of "a coordinated attack" involving "very serious allegations I absolutely refute."

He said his relationships have been "always consensual".

On Monday, one of the women who has accused him of sexual assault when she was 16 has said his behaviour was an "open secret".

The woman, known as Alice, added that allegations against him have been "a long time coming".

Speaking for the first time since accusations became public, she said his denial is "laughable" and "insulting".

TRAGIC SARA'S DAD IN THE DOCK

THE father of 10-year-old Sara Sharif and two other relatives will face trial over her death next autumn.

On Tuesday, Urfan Sharif, Sara's stepmother Beinash Batool and uncle Faisal Malik appeared at the Old Bailey having returned from Pakistan to face charges last week.

All three, who appeared by video link from custody, are charged with murdering Sara and causing or allowing the death of a child.

Judge Mark Lucraft KC set a plea hearing for December 1 and a six-week trial at the Old Bailey from September 2 2024 during the defendants' brief first Crown Court hearing.

Sharif, 41, Batool, 29, and Malik, 28, spoke only to confirm their identities and dates of birth.

The male defendants were at Belmarsh high security prison in south London and Batool was at Bronzefield jail in Surrey.

Police had launched an investigation after Sara's body was found under a blanket in a bunk bed at her home in Woking, Surrey, on August 10.

The day before, the three defendants left the UK for Pakistan.

Last week, the trio returned to the UK and were arrested on landing at Gatwick Airport.

HEIDI'S GIRL:

Why I love my sexy shagging panties

MUM'S THE WORD: Leni with her supermodel mother Heidi

HEIDI KLUM's pretty daughter has revealed she has special SHAGGING panties!

Budding model Leni Klum, daughter of German television host and supermodel Heidi Klum, said she adores all the sexy bras and panties she poses in for Intimissimi lingerie.

The bombshell, 19, has a penchant for lace, but will also rock sporty styles when she models for the Italian brand.

And she confessed that some panties are saved for "special" times.

"It depends on if I'm going to be alone or if I'm going to bed with my boyfriend," the interior design student said, referring to hunk Aris Rachevski.

Dating

"Almost four years we've been dating."

Leni, has faced an ongoing onslaught of criticism after entering the world of modelling just a few years ago, from her daring fashion choices and campaigns to her "nepo baby" status as she follows in her mother's footsteps.

A mother-daughter lingerie campaign from earlier this year saw a backlash online—largely aimed at supermodel Heidi as the sexy pair modelled a range of revealing bras, panties and bustiers.

Some critics claimed teenage daughter Leni had been "forced" into the photo shoot with many slamming Heidi's parenting choices.

But in her latest interview, busty Leni has put those claims to bed, assuring the world that she loves lingerie.

Molly: my baby sent sex drive through roof!

SOCIAL media beauty Molly-Mae Hague has admitted she doesn't have a "high sex drive" but said it was "through the roof" during her pregnancy.

The Love Island star, 24 (above), revealed she found it "uncomfortable".

In a new video with her big sister Zoe, 27, on Zoe's YouTube Channel, the pair talk of their generally low sex drives.

Molly-Mae said: "One thing I will add, when I was pregnant, my sex drive was through the roof."

"Tommy's wasn't – when I was pregnant he found it a bit strange. And that's fine, some men do."

"Some men are really into sex when their partner is pregnant... but Tommy found it quite uncomfortable... the thought that Bambi was in there and I was here."

"It was a bit weird."

Bounceback for holiday bookings

HOLIDAY firm TUI says the bounceback in demand for travel has helped summer bookings soar close to levels seen before the pandemic, but revealed growth was held back by disruption from wildfires in Rhodes.

The group reported a 5% rise in summer bookings to 13.7 million, reaching 96% of levels seen before COVID-19 struck.

It said demand in the final month of the season was up 8% on last year.

MIDWEEK Sport INVESTIGATES KINKY NEW TREND...

TALE OF THE TAPE

THE fashion shows are up and running again and last week the bandwagon was in New York.

And while we're not big on fashion here at Midweek Sport, we DO like this trend...

Tiny bikinis made out of TAPE, covering just the bare minimum.

The sexy look was a smash on the catwalks last year and has clearly continued into 2023.

The Miami-based Black Tape Project, known for its daring styles and for bringing new meaning to the phrase "less is more", showcased one of its most revealing collections.

out of tape were on display during the 2022 show at The Ziegfeld Ballroom.

But the tale of the tape isn't a new thing – it goes back more than a decade.

"King" of Tape" Joel Alvarez founded fashion brand Black Tape Project in 2008 and usually uses a spectrum of different tapes, including mirrored and metallics, to create his daring designs.

The designer said: "One day in 2008 I was a rookie photographer working with a model who suggested I use electrical tape on her for one of the looks."

And, thankfully, it's a look that caught on...

Katy: I sold off my songs and I like it!

KATY Perry has sold a bundle of her music rights to Litmus Music, with sources pricing the deal at £182m.

The sale, which was announced on Monday, covers all five albums she released for Capitol Records, from 2008's One of the Boys to 2020's Smile.

That includes multi-platinum hits like Firework, Teenage Dream, Hot 'n' Cold, California Gurls and I Kissed a Girl.

It is the biggest catalogue deal for a single artist this year.

Justin Bieber was the previous title holder, after offloading his stake in his back catalogue to the UK-based Hipgnosis Songs Capital in January for £162m.

Litmus now owns Katy's stake in the master recordings and publishing for the records, meaning it will collect any future royalties the music earns.

The beauty (above) has slowed her work rate down in recent years, concentrating on a Las Vegas residency and raising a family.

Raac school numbers up

THE number of schools in England affected by crumbling concrete has increased to 174, new figures published by the Government show.

The number stood at 147 as of August 30, but has increased by 27 as of September 14.

Officials said surveyors have been checking hundreds of schools every week for reinforced autoclaved aerated concrete, known as Raac.

The Government said it would be updating its list every two weeks.

Despite the increase in cases of confirmed Raac, more pupils in affected schools have been able to return to full-time face-to-face education since the first list was released.

A number of schools had initially delayed their September term restart as the Department for Education told them to close areas where Raac was present.

Spice Girl's whirlpool drowning horror

SHOWBIZ SHOCKER

By STIAN ALEXANDER
news@sundaysport.co.uk

GINGER Spice Geri Horner has revealed how she nearly DROWNED after getting sucked into a WHIRLPOOL.

The 51-year-old singer said she thought she was going to pop her clogs after falling out of a raft into the River Nile.

The mum-of-two was filming for Comic Relief in Africa in 1999 when she almost came a cropper.

She said: "We were filming for Comic Relief and our bit involved me travelling down white-water rapids, then ping, I fell out of the boat into a whirlpool."

"For a moment I didn't know which way was up and which was down."

Nude

"I nearly drowned there and then."

"It was terrifying. But somehow I escaped with nothing worse than a fat lip."

The one-time fanny-flashing nude model also said she was planning to go to Oxford University, saying: "I'd like to go to Oxford University to study history and English."

"I said it out loud for the first time this morning. I've every intention of making it happen."

TITS AND ARTS:
Snappa Spencer

By JANINE JENKINS
news@sundaysport.co.uk

MOST men spend hours persuading just one lady to remove her clothes.

Photographer Spencer Tunick gets HUNDREDS to do it at the same time!

The snappa is famous for his mass nude photo shoots where hundreds bare all.

And he was at it again this summer where he got hundreds to peel off at 3am in Kuopio in central Finland.

The 56-year-old Yank started his career by taking a snap of a nude woman at a bus stop in London.

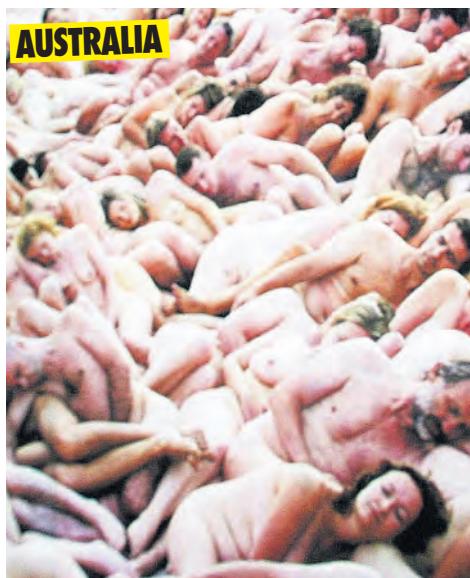

And in 1994, he got 28 people to pose nude outside the United Nations HQ in New York.

Since then, his antics have got bigger.

Tunick's philosophy is "individuals en masse, without clothing, grouped together, metamorphose into a new shape... the bodies extend into and upon the landscape like a substance, and these grouped masses, which do not underscore sexuality, then become abstractions that challenge or reconfigure one's views of nudity and privacy".

Yeh, whatever... for us, old Spencer has brought us huge amounts of tits 'n' fanny.

What a guy!

WE PRESENT... STRIPPED

Drunk stripper offered to pee in cop's face!

BODY camera footage shows a drunk stripper trying to seduce a cop, calling him a "handsome man" and telling her to taser her as she likes it "kinky", during a hit-and-run arrest.

Grace Spoonamore, 20 (above), was collared in Brunswick, Ohio, after the car she was driving crashed into another vehicle and then took off in full view of a passing cop.

The officer followed her, and cornered the vehicle, and on his body camera video, Spoonamore, originally from Georgia, appears visibly drunk, slurs her words and is often incoherent.

When the arresting cop asks if she has anything on her, Spoonamore giggles and suggestively says to the cop: "Search me real quick."

As she's being taken to jail, she tells the officer in the driver's seat: "I'll piss in your face, only if you like it."

Spoonamore now faces several charges, including operating a vehicle under the influence and speeding.

Teenager's held after shooting own mum dead

A TEEN boy was arrested after he shot and killed his own mum and left her boyfriend with multiple gunshot wounds.

The Hillsborough County Sheriff's Office received several calls over the incident in Riverview, Florida, Sheriff Chad Chonister said.

Deputies responded to the scene and found a 14-year-old boy who pointed a firearm at his own head at least six times, threatening to take his own life.

A long negotiation ensued, and cops fired a non-lethal projectile at the teenager, so he would not reach for the gun again.

He was then taken into custody.

Officers then responded to a call about a man who had fled his house after having been shot five times, sustaining gunshot wounds to the lower torso, hands and face.

HOT 'N' HO

SEXY Sophie Jennings likes nothing more than climbing on top of an Old Man... The Old Man of Coniston, that is!

The beauty, from Whitehaven in Cumbria, is a keen fellwalker and has a full collection of Wainwright's guides to the Lake District peaks. She said: "I've been up them all - Skiddaw, Blencathra, Scafell Pike, Catbells, Haystacks - and there's nothing better than a sturdy pair of boots of your feet and the wind in your hair.

"The Old Man of Coniston, which is actually a mountain, by the way, and not an old man, is my favourite."

The 32F model used to work as a masseuse and admitted her sensual skills are best put to use during X-rated bedroom action.

She revealed: "I have a particular set of skills with my hands."

But she's also a dab hand with a map and compass, too, adding: "The thing about being good with navigation is finding the quickest route back to the pub once you've had your walk."

Stalker now targets Harry Potter babe

BUT: Busto has turned his attention to Watson

DREW LOON STALKED EMMA WATSON TOO

SHOWBIZ SHOCKER

A MAN accused of stalking Drew Barrymore has been arrested again after allegedly barging into a dressing room and demanding to see Emma Watson.

Court documents accuse Chad Michael Busto, 43, of entering a room with models preparing for a New York Fashion Week show.

"I want to marry Emma Watson. Let me speak to Emma Watson," he reportedly yelled.

"Let me take a photo with Emma Watson now."

Trespassing

Several Fashion Week shows were held at the venue that day, including the star-studded Ralph Lauren show, but it's unclear whether Watson, 33, was even in the building.

Management called police and Busto was charged with two counts each of trespassing for her house. Last month, Busto attempted to confront Barrymore while she was onstage interviewing singer Renee Rapp at New York venue 92NY.

and disorderly conduct. Busto already had an active warrant after he allegedly failed to attend an appointment with police in the Hamptons to be fitted for an ankle monitor after riding a bicycle around New York trying to find Barrymore, 48.

"I'm Chad Michael Busto – you know who I am," he yelled at the actress from the audience as security quickly intervened.

Busto is due in Kings County Criminal Court in Brooklyn, for the Watson case, on October 10.

BABES IN DENIM

By SUZIE SHELDON
news@sundaysport.co.uk

ALTHOUGH denim became popular legwear with cowboys in America, it was invented in FRANCE.

The word denim is a contraction of the French phrase "serge de Nîmes"—as the fabric was made in the Frog city of Nîmes.

In the mid 19th century, a tailor called Jacob Davis used the new material to make rivet-reinforced trousers and, marketed by a bloke called Levi Strauss, jeans became famous. And it just so happens that denim looks GREAT on ladies – the tight fit showing off the curves of their tummers.

So here are FIVE pages of dishy dolls in denim...

'I'm looking for a plumber to fill my pipes'

...WITH

BURTON ON
TRENT, STAFFS

I HAVE a naughty fantasy about me getting it on with a tradesman... like a hunky plumber or builder.

Basically, we have just met, there's serious flirting and we very quickly have frantic sex – no beating about the bush.

Sounds a bit like a clichéd porn scene, I know, but in my fantasy it's not quite like, 'I'm here to fill your pipes'.

There would be a window cleaner and he'd be up on his ladders doing my bedroom window and he'd catch me lying on my bed in my sexiest and skimpiest underwear.

I'm feeling horny and was just about to get my sex toys out for a play. I notice he's good looking and I smile.

He knocks on the door and there's little chit chat. We kiss passionately and move back upstairs to the bedroom.

He touches my clit and my boobs and it feels amazing and I'm moaning in pleasure.

I suck his cock and he takes me from behind and the spontaneity of it with a stranger makes it so hot and I cum by the bucket-load.

HOT 'N' HORNY

FORGET stockings, tasty Tamrin Leandra reckons that tights are even sexier!

The 32D Northampton naughty said she likes wearing hose with no panties underneath.

She said: "It's just a bit more subtle to 'accidentally' flash your privates at a fella when you are wearing tights.

"It's not quite so 'in your face' so it takes him a second or two to realise what he is actually seeing.

"And a big fantasy of mine is to have a bloke tear a hole in my tights before a really hard session. "Is that very naughty of me?"

JUSTIN DUNN'S ROOM 101

WHAT'S ANNOYING HIM THIS WEEK?

Is this the end of the preachy 'comics'?

JUST the fact that Russell Brand named one of his inexhaustibly dull memoirs My Booky Wook should have given us a clue.

I mean: My Booky Wook? Are you fking joking? I know he's meant to be a comedian, but seriously?

He's right up there in the jollity stakes as that other non-rib achingly unfunny Nish Kumar.

Or that other prat, the one who makes travel shows with his mum, who we haven't heard of for a while.

Reports over the weekend, the details of which I won't get into, what with libel and contempt of court laws and all that kind of palaver, did raise one interesting subject that I CAN talk about.

Russell Brand, 48 (right), was once considered a poster boy for the left, with his teeth and his hair and his chest and his highly fking irritating misuse of the word "paradigm" over and over and over again.

Streak

Dressed like Jesus or Charles Manson – take your pick – he was feted and fawned over by everyone who had a streak of red running through them.

One of them was Ed Miliband, aka the former Labour leader who created the Jeremy Corbyn disaster, aka The Man Who Cannot Eat a Bacon Sandwich.

The problem – whatever the others – was that Brand wasn't actually funny.

He was challenging and daring and different – or, at least, that's what he thought.

But he wasn't really.

Since the late Eighties, the whole UK comedy industry has existed on an almost-purely left-wing basis.

I'm old enough to vividly remember watching Ben Elton, live, on the same bill as the late, great Rik Mayall at the Royal Court theatre in Liverpool. All I knew about Rik, like most people, was as his alter-ego in The Young Ones.

I didn't have a clue who Ben Elton was. But by the time his slot was over, bloody hell, did we know.

All I heard was a diatribe about Thatcher, and corporate wankers, and "big money", and Big Pharma, and all the rest of what we now seem to commonly accept as comedy.

Now, I don't like Big Pharma or corporate wankers as much as anybody else.

But I also very much do not like some twat with a microphone, whose entertainment services I have paid good money to receive, to just stand there blowing off about their politics.

First of all, I'm not arsed. I'm not interested.

I turned up to hear some fking jokes and to hopefully go home with a smile on my face.

Second, who do you rehearse this dreadfully repetitive material on?

Stoned

Stoned students? Depressed goths? Suicidal teenagers?

The left, by the way, are now hilariously describing their former darling Brand as "alt right" – ie, a conspiracy theorist.

I don't know either way, and neither do you.

But I do know this.

The 40-odd years of tedious, preachy, finger-wagging bollocks slipping out of the mouths of rabid left-wing "entertainers" posing as comedy is rapidly and – thankfully – coming to an end.

Stick that in your Booky Wook and smoke it.

Held for arson after torching lover's Jaguar

A MAN was arrested for arson after he torched a car belonging to his girlfriend, who also happens to be his own cousin.

Melvin Cintron, 37 (above), was caught on camera setting his cousin and lover's Jaguar XE on fire in front of a property in North Miami, Florida, on April 29.

Police determined the motor belonged to Cintron's girlfriend, but were unable to interview her until last week.

She initially said her car caught fire as she drove home, because she was afraid of what Cintron would do if she told cops the truth.

Whenever she spoke to investigators about what happened to her Jag, Cintron made her put the phone on speaker, so he could hear her conversations with the police.

When she was finally able to speak freely, she told officers she fears Cintron as he always carries an automatic weapon.

Cintron has been charged with arson and theft, after taking the victim's handbag containing a large amount of cash, and is being held in the Turner Guilford Knight Correctional Centre.

Horse rider was s-addled with booze!

A DRUNK was nicked for driving under the influence while riding his HORSE.

Officer Brackett of the California Highway Patrol in Merced, California was on duty when he noticed a horseback rider carrying an open container of alcohol.

Brackett approached the rider and, after a short investigation which led the officer to suspect the man was impaired by alcohol, he arrested the suspect.

"It's worth noting that, according to California Vehicle Code 21050, the rules of the road apply to those operating animals on the highway," Merced Police said in a statement.

In what officials called a "display of true compassion," Brackett subsequently ensured the safe return of the horse to its home after the arrest of its pissed rider.

California Highway Patrol officials added: "This incident serves as a reminder that impaired riding – even on a horse – poses risks to both the rider and others on the road. Let's continue to prioritise responsible and sober actions on roads."

SEX-CRAZED COUPLE CHOPPED UP PAL WITH A CHAINSAW!

WE'RE
No.1
FOR CRIME

BANGED UP: Michael Hendricks and Maggie Ybarra

A COUPLE will spend the rest of their lives in prison for killing the woman's friend, to fulfil the man's sex horror fantasy before he dismembered her body with a chainsaw and buried the remains.

Michael Hendricks, 42, and Maggie Ybarra, 32, were sentenced for the murder of Kensie Aubry, 32.

Hendricks was sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole plus 44-and-a-half more years, while Ybarra was sentenced to life in prison plus 56-and-a-half years.

Jean Peters Baker, the Jackson County Prosecutor, praised the work of investigators and a brave victim who led law enforcement to the defendants, who also each faced separate charges related to that case.

Unspeakable

"My office spent countless hours to assure justice in this case of unspeakable human behaviour," said Baker. "We sought the maximum under the law, and I must also praise law enforcement, notably the Grandview Police Department, for believing and acting on the word of this victim."

"Justice could not have been served without her bravery and her sense of right and wrong. She delivered this just ruling."

The victim's mother also said that justice was served.

"I miss just her love, her hugs, her happiness that she has in her heart," she said. "My daughter was a very sweet person. She would have done anything for anybody."

In court, Ybarra said she was accountable and apologised to the child victim, saying that Hendricks had manipulated her.

The girl came forward to report Hendricks to authorities for allegedly touching her and trying to entice her to have group sex with him and Ybarra.

Her information led investigators to the property near Grain Valley, outside Kansas City, Missouri, where Aubry's mutilated corpse was discovered.

According to the witness, Hendricks and Ybarra boasted of their violence against Aubry and provided photos on a mobile phone as proof, with one showing "a female with her hands tied, naked and gagged".

Holly loves the cock!

HOLLY Willoughby enjoyed a dream Italian anniversary getaway with her husband Dan Baldwin – by gaping at the world's most famous COCK.

The This Morning host, 42, took to Instagram on her business Wyld Moon account to share photos with her followers.

In one, Holly was seen staring at Michelangelo's David statue, which features a little stone willy.

In another snap, Holly sipped on a drink while looking out at the Italian buildings and views in Florence, at the iconic Duomo cathedral.

Poor Holly needs the break – recently her former This Morning co-host, Brave Phillip Schofield, dramatically removed pics of the pair together from his own Instagram account.

It's believed the United Nations is now monitoring the situation.

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Sam,

AS a guy in his mid-20s, is it wrong for me to want to use a dildo every time I have sex?

I don't have a regular girlfriend, so my sex life always consists of one-night stands.

I happened to sleep with one girl a few times and she thought it was weird that on each occasion I brought out a huge, pink dildo and asked her to penetrate me with it.

The third time she got dressed and left and said I was in the closet and needed to come out.

I am definitely not gay – I have never had feelings for men, but I just seem to get aroused better this way.

Am I weird?

Anon, Cambridge

Sam says...

CERTAINLY not – lots of straight men take great pleasure from shoving things up their bums.

Dear Sam,

I'M a 19-year-old student who has just moved away from home to go to university.

Until I moved away I was having a fantastic time partying and was banging this lass whose dad owns a big boozier.

Last month we went back there after a club. It was about 2am and we went through to the pool room.

We decided to have a game and every ball we potted meant the other had to take off an item of clothing.

Before long, she was wearing just a pair of hold-up stockings, and the next ball I potted, I challenged her to lay back on the table and spread her legs.

She did and started frigging herself, and just before she came I got my dick out and put my knob in her gob.

We both came and she swallowed the lot and the green baize cloth only had a few damp patches from her juices.

But last week she asked me to leave college to help her and her dad run the pub.

I'm tempted but know that getting an education means a lot to my parents, who never got the chance.

What should I do?

CB, Staffs

Sam says...

TRY it part-time. You'll earn some cash and have more chances to shag her.

Fit fitter unleashed his enormous roll of carpet

Dear Sam,

I'M a married working mum, aged 37, and a few weeks ago I took a day off work because we were having a bedroom carpet fitted at home.

When the fitter arrived he turned out to be a gorgeous lad in his early 20s.

We began chatting and he told he was a part-time stripper nicknamed 'King Dong'.

And I could see why – his cock was bulging through the front of his tight shorts.

I couldn't take my eyes off it and he noticed the look of amazement in my eyes. Then, in a flash, he'd dropped his pants and there it was in all its glory.

Next thing I know, 15 years of being totally faithful went out the window as I sank to my knees and I proceeded to wank and suck that monster dick like my life depended on it.

I was nearly gagging at one point as I deep-throated him, but he somehow managed to push it deeper.

When he shot his load it was like swallowing a pint of milk. Then we rolled around on the bare boards and he gave me the best fking of my life.

Now I can't get this young stallion out of my mind.

What should I do?

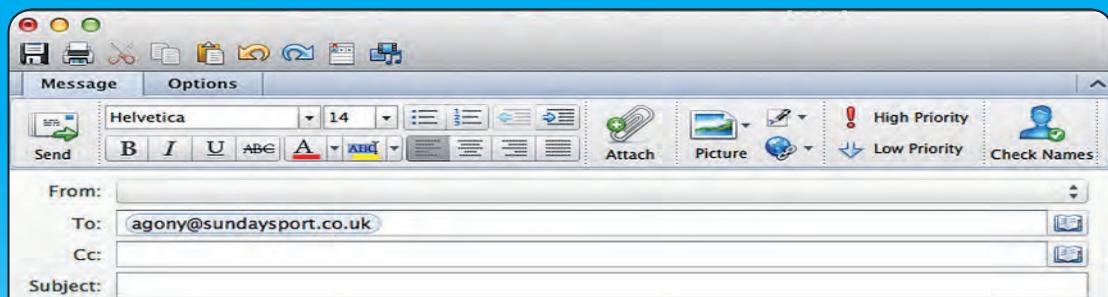

LR, North London

Sam says...

CHECK out your local pubs and clubs for male strippers.

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week SAM TYE has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you...

I love slipping one in after an oily massage

Dear Sam,

I WORK in a pretty menial job and life's a struggle.

It has got so bad recently that after a few years off looking after the kids, the wife said she'd get a job to make ends meet.

After scanning online job sites for work, and attending a few interviews, my wife announced she'd got a job at a supermarket.

Life became great – every week my wife piled in with bags full of shopping – and more cash.

Then I bumped into one of her pals who leered: "How's she doing at the massage parlour?"

Well, I couldn't believe it, but I confronted the wife and she admitted it.

Oral

I was ashamed, hurt and worried but I calmed down when she said she was earning up to £200 a night and was now able to buy all the things we'd denied ourselves before.

Then she told me of some of the services she provided.

She said she gave only hand relief and oral and never offered full sex.

After hearing the sex menu, I found myself strangely turned on.

I pulled her onto my knee as we sat on the sofa and what followed was absolutely amazing.

We slowly undressed each other, button by button, and I pulled up her jumper to kiss her 34Cs.

Then we stood up and took off the rest of our kit.

She told me to relax and lie on my stomach on the carpet.

Then she pulled out a bottle of oil and began rubbing my back and legs.

My dick was throbbing, so she rolled me onto my back and mounted me.

I was in heaven as I thrust away until she screamed as I brought her to orgasm.

We have sessions like this regularly now, but I still get jealous when she's out at work.

Do you think I should just try to get another, better job, so she can stay at home and service just me?

SD, West Mids

Sam says...

NO – she clearly loves her new job as much as she loves you.

Dear Sam,

I'VE just had sex with my boyfriend of three months for the first time.

Although we'd done plenty of other things before, I didn't realise how small his dick was until it was inside me.

He is great with his mouth and his hands, but when it came down to actual penetration I couldn't feel a thing.

Of course, I moaned and groaned as if I was having a great time – but the truth is I could have fallen asleep.

I am keen on this guy, so is there anything I can buy to make him bigger?

Carrie, Brighton

Sam says...

No. Get used to it or get rid!

Loft find leads to gash in the attic

Dear Sam,

I'M a 34-year-old roofer with a lovely girlfriend who I plan to marry some time next year.

The other week I was called out by a pal of mine to help him with a loft conversion.

Anyway, me and my pal got going on the job and started clearing out the loft.

There were loads of boxes of photo albums and I thought there was no harm in having a flick through.

The first was of wedding snaps but in the second there were loads of old Polaroid pictures of the lady of the house in explicit PORN poses!

In the next album there were more photos of the woman being serviced by different guys.

At the end of the day, when we were getting ready to go, the woman turned up at the house wearing a tiny revealing dress.

I couldn't help but think of her with her legs spread like in the photos.

My pal had to get off but I stayed on, using the excuse of measuring up.

Then she said: "I'd like to measure you up!"

As she said it she slipped out of the dress – she had nothing on underneath and pretty soon I was pumping away at her.

Just before I was about to come, she pushed me off, grabbed a camera and took a pic of me with a stiff cock and spunking off.

Then her hubby walked in and said he'd been watching the action and wondered if my fiancée would like to see the photo!

Now they are insisting I take part in a filmed orgy with them, but I don't want to be blackmailed like this.

What should I do?

PK, South Yorks

Sam says...

CALL their bluff – tell them to go and fk themselves!

Dear Sam,

I HAVE just discovered that my wife is having an affair with another woman and is planning to leave me.

Our sex life has always been great and we've tried toys, roleplaying, dressing up and lots of positions.

One session happened on a bank holiday weekend in the Cotswolds – we packed a selection of dildos and vibrators and went straight to our hotel room.

We started off with mutual masturbation, oral, doggy-style nookie and even a bit of anal.

After we had both climaxed several times we got dressed and went downstairs to eat.

But we were soon so horny we couldn't finish our meal and went straight back to our room, stripped off and jumped in the sack again.

This time I pleased her with a 10-inch dildo and she used a vibrator on me.

After a while we were so turned on we shagged for 25 minutes before I collapsed on top of her and we lay in a hot sweaty heap before falling asleep.

We woke at around 2.30am and did it all again.

This continued until we left on Monday morning.

I have tried talking to my wife about her lesbo lust, but she doesn't want to know.

What can I do to win her back?

KT, east London

Sam says...

THIS lesbo affair might just be temporary.

HOT 'N' HORNY

AWESOME Ella Mai has revealed she loves an all-day BONKATHON!

The Bedford-born brunette said only a sex marathon can satisfy her high nookie drive.

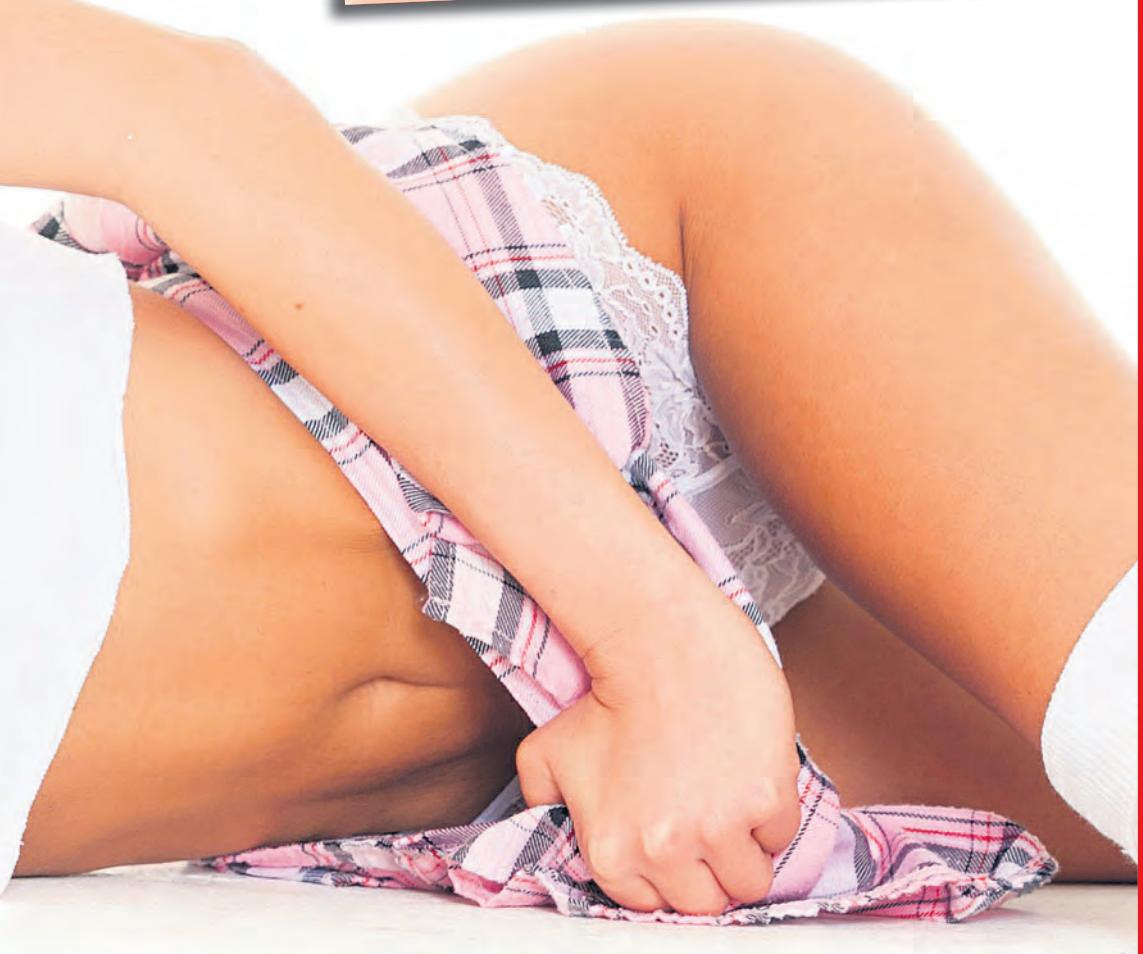

Ella, who has perky 30E boobs, explained she feels frustrated if she doesn't get a lengthy seeing-to.

She said: "Probably the most I've ever had sex was when I was seeing a guy and we ended up bonking five times one afternoon."

"We had a few glasses of wine and were feeling horny, so we just stayed in bed all day drinking more wine and bonking endlessly."

"On average, I probably feel horny around three times a day. I am always horny in the morning and if I'm not satisfied I'll spend all day desperate for a shag."

The glamour babe admitted she also enjoys "having a perv" at hot dances.

The 36D model explained that a night getting lap dances as a couple really gets them both in the mood for sex, too.

Keira, from Tower Hamlets in east London, said: "I absolutely love watching a really fit girl doing her thing on a pole."

"It's so elegant and really an art form."

"It's a turn-on, too, when they start to take their clothes off and – if I'm honest – I go in with my man as an excuse!"

AMANDA DORKING

FOOTBALL coach David Hicks asked for a photo of Colchester cutie Amanda Dorking so he can give his players a pre-season pick-me-up.

David, 53, coaches a Sunday league team in the Surrey and said a saucy shot of Amanda will give his team a boost.

He said: "The lads are Colchester United fans and they've been a bit down after this season's form in Division Two."

"I promised them I'd show them something from Essex that was still top quality – a pic of 32D Amanda in the dressing room for the new season will be a good luck omen!"

PROUD south Londoner Rob Owens wanted a sexy photo of Mia Malkova to prove to his pals the fittest girls are south of the river.

Rob, 26, from Merton, works in a call centre and says all his mates rate north London babes.

But Rob says 34C Mia, from Richmond, is easily the best

He said: "I need to settle an office debate so please can you print a topless photo of Mia in the paper. "I'll win this hands down!"

CONFIDENT: Murray

Ireland buzzing to take on Boks

SCRUM-HALF Conor Murray feels Ireland's squad are "buzzing" and in "unbelievable nick" ahead of a pivotal Paris appointment with reigning champs South Africa.

Andy Farrell's men have underlined their status as Test rugby's top-ranked nation by beginning the World Cup with emphatic bonus-point successes over Romania and Tonga.

But their credentials will be truly tested on Saturday evening when they face the formidable Springboks at Stade de France in Pool B's standout fixture.

Ireland will assess hooker Dan Sheehan, back-rower Jack Conan (both foot) and prop Finlay Bealham (head injury assessment) before the visit to the French capital, with Murray excited for the step up in challenge.

"We feel great," said the Munster player. "Going back to the pre-season we had, it was great. We feel fit. Most of the lads are in unbelievable nick."

"We have a couple of lads with knocks to come back and, when we get them, we will be absolutely buzzing."

"But we are buzzing already. The exciting thing is we want to see where we can take this team when the challenges get tougher and tougher."

"We are playing good rugby and have things to work on. The big tests are to come but we feel good, we are ready to go."

"You have to embrace it. It's going to be a massive challenge: world champions in a World Cup. It's something really exciting."

Murray started against Tonga in Nantes after backing up Jamison Gibson-Park from the bench in the Bordeaux opener against Romania.

The 34-year-old could come up against provincial team-mate Jean Kleyn, who represented Ireland at the 2019 World Cup before switching allegiance to his native country.

Murray insists there are no hard feelings.

"He has been an unbelievable servant to Munster, so you'd wish him all the best," he said of 30-year-old lock Kleyn.

"That's the way the world is now."

"If I'm playing against him, I'll just try and avoid him. He is a physical man, he loves that kind of carry on and he is very, very good at it, so, I'll just try to avoid him!"

LATEST NEWS FROM THE RU

LUDLAM HITTING THE BOOS

Moaning fans need to give England a break after second win of tournament

LEWIS Ludlam has urged boozing fans to keep the faith after admitting that England could have shown more enterprise in their 34-12 World Cup victory over Japan.

Head coach Steve Borthwick declared it was job done as England took a stranglehold on Pool D through a bonus-point win, but after the 14-man rout of Argentina it felt like a backwards step had been taken on a messy evening at the Stade de Nice.

Early in the third quarter supporters groaned when Alex Mitchell – a live-wire scrum-half whose instinct is to run – booted the ball dead and the jeering grew in volume when the kicking continued.

England then ignited, defying the humidity-soaked conditions that made handling treacherous, to stage a thrilling all-out assault on Japan that was directed by George Ford and replacement full-back Marcus Smith.

By PAUL THOMAS

The gameplan was to grind down unorthodox opponents and then take them apart when they were out on their feet. In that sense it worked, but for lengthy periods it was also a hard watch that clearly alienated some fans.

When asked for his message to supporters, Ludlam said: "I just say stick with us."

"We are a team that is learning every week and there are probably opportunities in there when we could have run that ball."

"However, it was hard to see how greasy that ball was. It was humid in that stadium and a couple of times we tried to play and ended up straight back on our tryline."

"George Ford is very good at putting us in the right areas and putting us in behind so that we have better opportunities to attack farther up the pitch."

"It's hard to get the fans excited about that and we understand, but we're building."

Stellar

"That was probably not the performance we wanted – it was not a complete performance – but we are happy to get the win and the five points."

"We will take more opportunities and we want to be a better team next weekend and play in the right areas of the pitch."

For the second successive weekend Ford was named man of the match as he single-mindedly executed England's gameplan, but his stellar form presents Borthwick with a conundrum.

Owen Farrell returns from suspension against Chile on Saturday and while Ford will surely be rested for the showdown with Pool D's weakest opponents, Borthwick must decide who to start at fly-half in a tricky appointment with Samoa a week later.

As England's captain and talisman Farrell demands selection, but his return would alter a winning team that has been well led by the indomitable Courtney Lawes.

Borthwick's likely solution is to reunite Ford and Farrell in a playmaking axis against Samoa on October 7 with the Saracens ringmaster reacclimatising to Test rugby at 10 in Lille on Saturday.

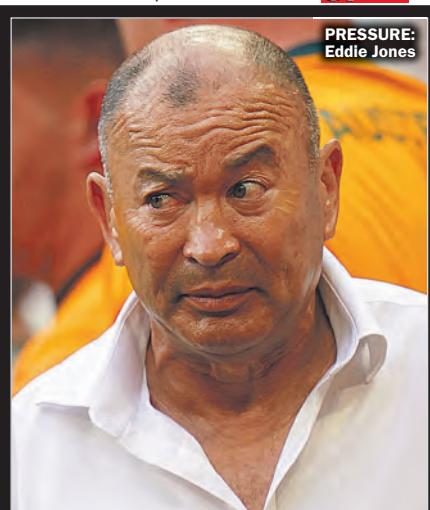

"Owen's always chomping at the bit to get involved whether he's banned or not."

"He's always there and always

Dragons keen to KO Wallabies

EDDIE Jones accepts that Australia are "under the pump" as they prepare for a make-or-break clash against Wales.

A first pool stage exit in World Cup history will loom for the Wallabies if they fail to beat Warren Gatland's team on Sunday.

In contrast, Wales are sitting pretty, top of the group with a maximum 10 points and moving towards a fourth successive World Cup quarter-final.

And while the Welsh go about business back at their training base, Jones is picking through the pieces of a first loss to Fiji since 1954.

"We are moving on to Wales now," said Australia head coach Jones, whose side were beaten 22-15 by the Pacific nation in Saint-Etienne on Sunday.

"These are the weeks you remember when you are under the pump and you have got to produce a good performance."

"We are starting to set our sights on how we need to play against Wales. The only thing we are worried about is Wales this week."

"We would be happy to play them tomorrow if they wanted to play. We can't wait for the challenge."

Wales have beaten Australia in three of the countries' last four meetings, and they will tackle a team reeling from a loss that has left them teetering on the brink.

Australia will also be without injured forwards Taniela Tupou and Will Skelton, increasing their degree of difficulty in a game of inevitably intense pressure.

Jones added: "There are no problems with motivation. This team cares a lot about their performance."

"We are all still searching for answers. None of us has the 100 per cent answer, but we have ideas about where the game came unstuck."

"Wales are a completely different team. They grind away at you, whereas Fiji is power. This is one of the biggest challenges for this team and for the coaching staff. We know how we want to play against Wales and we are going to work really hard to get the players back on track.

"When you have a loss like this, it knocks you around a bit. It knocks you emotionally and team-ethics wise. You start seeing shadows in every corner of the room."

"There is noise from outside which you have to handle. That is the challenge for the coaching staff this week, to make sure they have got the right noise."

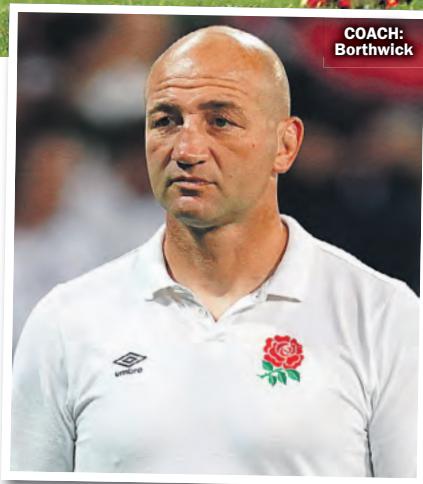

Wales are back at their training base, with only flanker Tommy Reffell and prop Henry Thomas among Gatland's squad likely to need fitness assessments.

Reffell pulled out of Wales' clash against Portugal just before kick-off in Nice due to a tight calf muscle, while Thomas has played no part in the tournament so far because of a hamstring issue.

Gatland said: "People had an opportunity to put their hand up against Portugal, so we will see which guys did well."

"I thought Rio Dyer looked sharp on the wing, and I was really happy with his aerial stuff. Probably the lineout didn't function as well as I would have liked, and we were a bit lateral at times."

"But when we were direct and in contact we looked comfortable."

COACH:
Borthwick

leading the team forward," Ludlam said.

"It is massive that we have got him back. He's a massive leader for us. It's just brilliant adding to that competition at 10 which is so fierce at the moment."

"Owen's a proper competitor. He's one of the most competitive blokes I have had the pleasure of playing with or against."

"You know he's going to fight to the end and lead the team in the right way. He's a massive character around the place and we are happy he's back from his ban now."

Courtney Lawes insists England are beginning to show their teeth in attack after the Japan win.

Three tries opened the game, including Lawes' comical try which he touched down after the ball had struck Joe Marler's head.

"It was quite a lucky try but I'll take them how they come. It was a good bit of luck for us and in these conditions, you take what you're given," Lawes said.

"I saw it ricochet off Joe's head so I went to score the try just in case, but I was pretty sure that it had gone backwards and then come off his head. I had a good idea that it was going to be given."

"The conditions were tough. Even when you've got a good grasp of the ball you'd go into contact and you could feel it almost spinning out of your hands, sometimes even before you've made contact."

"It's actually really challenging at the moment because it's just so greasy. It's hot and humid and you're already really sweaty. It pretty much makes it like a wet weather game out there."

"We showed glimpses of how good our attack can be and we'll continue to work on it. We're getting better every day."

Thiago right to blow top says Poch

MAURICIO Pochettino admitted he empathised with Thiago Silva's frustration after the defender appeared to lose his temper with Chelsea teammates during their goalless draw at Bournemouth on Sunday.

At one stage, whilst in possession of the ball during the first half at the Vitality Stadium, the defender was visibly angered by the team's set-up, with little movement in front of him and huge gaps between forward players and the defense.

Silva, who turns 39 on Friday, is one of the club's most experienced and successful players having won seven Ligue 1 titles with Paris St Germain, the Serie A title with AC Milan and the Champions League with Chelsea in 2021.

He has also collected 113 caps for Brazil during a 15-year international career.

Relaxed

By contrast three of his teammates who started the draw with Bournemouth – Lesley Ugochukwu, Levi Colwill and Malu Gusto – were not born when Silva made his professional debut for Brazilian third-tier side RS Futebol in 2002.

With an average age of just over 23 Chelsea have the youngest squad in this season's Premier League, and an injury crisis that has left Pochettino without 12 first-team players has increased his dependency on youth.

"We need to be more relaxed," said Blues boss Pochettino.

"Sometimes the defensive players want to help the team to score because the feeling is that we are creating chances but can't score.

"Then we need to be clever. Thiago has experience, but too many players (in the team) are still learning about the game. That is the construction and the building of a new team. There are many rules in football that you can't write."

"In these type of games when you are pushing, pushing, trying to score and if you don't score, it's normal (to be frustrated), you know."

Pochettino also clarified the absences of Marc Cucurella, Noni Madueke and Moises Caicedo, none of whom were in Sunday's squad.

Instead the manager was forced to name three players who were 19 and under with no first-team experience on the bench, as well as two goalkeepers.

"Cucurella had a fever (on Saturday) and was at home and didn't train," said Pochettino. "Noni came from the national team with a muscle problem. Caicedo came with a knock in his knee. We need to assess (on Monday). That's why they weren't available, plus another 10 or 11 players."

KNIGHT TO SHINE FOR CRISFORDS

KNIGHT can end his near year-long wait for a win in the Chasemore Farm Fortune Stakes at Sandown.

Simon and Ed Crisford's charge won both of his juvenile outings in 2022, culminating in a stylish Group Three success on deep ground in Newbury's Morris Hill which was the last time he struck gold.

The son of Mehmas was beaten 18 lengths in the Greenham on his return to action, while a trip to France for the Poule d'Essai des Poulains ended in disappointment as he was withdrawn by the starter.

Positive

Gelded after that, Knight shaped with promise on his comeback from a 104-day absence when fourth in the Thoroughbred Stakes at Goodwood and stepped up again to come home a fair second in the Group Two Celebration Mile.

Moving back down to Listed company for this mile assignment, Knight's rating of 111 puts him right in the mix while he is favoured at the weights as a three-year-old and without a penalty for his win at higher level least year.

By MIKE FRANCIS

Easyground is also another positive factor.

Winterfair is an interesting newcomer for William Haggas in the Follow @ racingtv On Twitter Novice Stakes.

A daughter of Kitten's Joy out of a half-sister to dual Classic winner Camelot, she boasts an entry in next month's Fillies' Mile and merits a second look.

Al Asifah is on a retrieval mission in the EBF Stallions John Musker Fillies' Stakes at Yarmouth.

The Frankel filly did not make her racecourse debut until May and was something of a revelation on her first two starts, winning by just short of five lengths on her first attempt at Haydock and hacking up by six and a half lengths in a Goodwood Listed heat.

However, upped to a mile and a half from 10 furlongs and supplemented for the Ribblesdale at Royal Ascot, Al Asifah came unstuck as the 5-6 favourite.

Beaten eight and a half lengths in sixth, the form has still worked out well with winner Warm Heart now a dual Group One scorer, second Lumiere Rock a subsequent Group Two winner and third-placed Bluestocking only narrowly denied Irish Oaks glory.

It could be a combination of factors was to blame for the defeat, with Al Asifah making a swift 11-day turnaround over a trip that stretched beyond her remit and in company that was just a bit too deep.

Given the promise of her Listed win, Al Asifah should be given another chance.

Upgrading

Rogue Enforcer can make it third time lucky in the Molly Williamson Happy 80th Birthday EBF Restricted Maiden Stakes at Beverley.

He has shown glimpses of ability for Peter Chapple-Hyam, finishing third behind a Group Three-placed runner on his first attempt at Newmarket before upgrading that to a recent second at Ripon.

The Profitable colt might not need to find too much more to win on the Westwood.

BMW gets McIlroy all revved for Ryder Cup

GOOD SHOW AT WENTWORTH BOOSTS RORY'S CONFIDENCE

EUROPE will take on the United States in the Ryder Cup in Rome buoyed by an "awesome" week in the BMW PGA Championship, says Rory McIlroy.

All 12 members of the team made the cut at Wentworth and seven finished in the top 10, with Tyrrell Hatton a runner-up, Jon Rahm fourth, Viktor Hovland fifth and Tommy Fleetwood sixth.

McIlroy, who only made the weekend thanks to a birdie on the 18th in near-darkness on Friday evening, carded closing rounds of 67 and 65 to climb into a tie for seventh before heading to Mykonos for a friend's stag do on Monday.

Form

Asked if Europe captain Lee Donald would be pleased with the leaderboard, McIlroy said: "It's awesome. We're in a good spot."

"We had a really good day in Rome on Monday, the team's been shaping up really well for the last couple of months, everyone's been in pretty good form. It's still almost two weeks away until the first ball is hit on the Friday morning but I'm sure you'll ask all the boys that are coming in here they are all just so excited to get to Rome and get going."

By ANDY MILLOM

McIlroy began the final round 10 shots off the lead held by Ryder Cup teammate Ludvig Aberg but closed to within two after covering his first 15 holes in seven under.

However, the 2014 champion was unable to birdie either the 17th or 18th, both par fives, to put more pressure on the players still out on the course following an 82-minute weather delay.

"It's not disappointment that I haven't won, I'm more disappointed that I couldn't take advantage of the positions I put myself in on 17 and 18," McIlroy said.

"Even if I had birdied those two holes and not won at least I'd have given myself every chance and given the guys that are still out on the golf course work for it a little more."

"There's a couple of things to work on and to try and iron a couple of the misses out of my game."

"I'm getting a little quick in transition with some iron shots and leaving some out to the right but apart from that I feel like everything is in pretty good shape."

New Zealand's Ryan Fox staged a brilliant comeback to win the BMW PGA Championship as rising star Ludvig Aberg was brought down to earth at Wentworth.

Partner

Fox began the final round three shots behind leader Aberg and looked out of contention after running up a triple-bogey seven on the third, but covered his last 13 holes in eight under par for a closing 67.

An 18-under-par total gave Fox a one-shot victory over playing partner Aaron Rai and England's Tyrrell Hatton. Rai agonisingly missed a long eagle putt on the 18th which could have given him the title or at least forced a play-off.

Jon Rahm, who had been runner-up on each of his two previous appearances at Wentworth, carded an erratic 68 to claim fourth on 16 under as seven members of Europe's Ryder Cup side packed the top 10, with Rory McIlroy surging through the field with a 65.

Aberg, who had been seeking back-to-back victories in just his 10th event as a professional, held a two-shot lead after 54 holes but slumped to a closing 76 which included two double bogeys in the space of three holes.

"I don't know what to think at the moment to be honest," Fox said. "It's not a tournament that has treated me very well in the past, although I've loved coming here. I don't know what changed today but it's pretty special to make a birdie on the last to win."

"To have a back nine like that, especially after how I started the day, it's amazing. I played great and pretty much didn't miss a shot from the third hole onwards."

Fox, who is the first New Zealander to win the title, added: "It's such an iconic tournament. I know Michael Campbell won the World Match Play here and to add to that history with my family here to support me just made the week."

"We have been through a pretty tough year as a family. Lost my father-in-law in June after a really, really short battle with cancer and that kind of rocked the family."

"To have them here and have number two with us, little Margot who is four months old, is very, very special."

THIS WEEK IN SPORT HISTORY

- 1922: Czech athlete Emil Zatopek was born. An outstanding distance runner, he won the 10,000 metres at the 1948 Olympic Games in London and at Helsinki four years later took gold in the 5,000m, 10,000m and marathon. At his peak, he won 69 consecutive events at all distances and set 18 world records from 5,000m to 25km. He died in November 2000 at Prague Military Hospital after a long illness.
- 1999: Alan Shearer scored five goals in Newcastle's 8-0 Premier League rout of Sheffield Wednesday.
- 2000: Britain's three-day event team of Jeanette Brakewell on Over To You, Leslie Law on Shear H2O, Pippa Funnell on Supreme Rock and Ian Stark on Jaybee won silver at the Olympic Games in Sydney, while cyclists Bradley Wiggins, Chris Newton, Bryan Steel and Paul Manning took bronze in the 4,000m team pursuit.
- 2004: Steve Harmison became the first England player to pull out of the controversial winter tour to Zimbabwe.
- 2006: Randy Lerner completed his takeover of Aston Villa, succeeding Doug Ellis as chairman after acquiring nearly 90 per cent of the club.
- 2007: England were knocked out of the inaugural World Twenty20 as a result of South Africa's defeat of New Zealand in Durban.
- 2015: Japan pulled off the biggest shock in Rugby World Cup history with a stunning 34-32 win over South Africa at the Amex Stadium in Brighton.
- 2015: Gloucestershire held their nerve to claim an unlikely six-run victory over Surrey in the Royal London One-Day Cup final at Lord's.
- 2018: Cristiano Ronaldo was sent off for the first time in the Champions League in his 154th match but Juventus still ran out 2-0 winners at Valencia thanks to two penalties from Miralem Pjanic.
- 2022: Sport came to a standstill across the United Kingdom as Britons paid their final respects to the Queen on the day of her state funeral.

GUNNERS FIGHT FOR SHIRTS

Odegaard believes strong squad can fire Arsenal towards the Premier League title

ARSENAL captain Martin Odegaard welcomes the competition within the squad – highlighted by manager Mikel Arteta now choosing to rotate his two goalkeepers – as he believes it will make them stronger.

David Raya, who signed on loan from Brentford and on whom the Gunners have a £27million option to buy, made his debut in the 1-0 victory at Goodison Park, which extended their unbeaten start to five matches.

It means England international Aaron Ramsdale's position as established number one is likely to be challenged over the coming weeks, but Odegaard said that principle should apply to the whole squad.

That was evident as Leandro Trossard came off the bench for the injured Gabriel Martinelli to score the only goal in the second half, but it is the position of goalkeeper which is set to remain the major talking point.

"I think it showed the depth in the squad now. We have so many quality players, the players on the bench can come on and change the game if we need it," said the Norway international.

"The competition for places is huge and I think that is a great thing for us and helps a lot."

Working

"You see in training every day the quality we have so everyone has to be on their best every day in training and that's a good thing and will help us improve as a team as well."

On Ramsdale's response to being dropped at Goodison Park, having started England's friendly victory over Scotland just a few days previously, Odegaard added: "I think he will just keep working hard, like he is always doing."

"He was there supporting us, cheering for us, helping us. He is a great character and he showed a very good response today by backing his team-mates, being there and giving us energy."

"Excellent from him. We have two good goalkeepers there and it's big competition."

"We have got two top goalkeepers in the squad, different qualities, and both so good on the ball and in the goal as well."

"We are lucky to have two such good goalkeepers and we will see who will play, but both of them are excellent."

Victory at Goodison Park, where they had not won in their previous five visits, was psychologically important to keep pace with the rest of their top-four rivals and the manner of the performance, having to grind out three points despite not being at their best, was pleasing for the Gunners captain.

"It was a tough one. "We knew it was a tough place to come, it's been a tough place for Arsenal for a long time, but I think we did really well and deserved the win as well so very happy," he added.

"It's a tough team and they play a bit different, and we had to deal with a lot of different things."

Injury

"But we knew it would be a tough game, but were ready for it and I think we did really well on the pitch to fight and get the goal in the end so credit to the team and happy for the win."

Arsenal's attentions now turn to the Champions League as they welcome PSV Eindhoven to the Emirates tonight.

Partey is still not fit after a recent groin injury.

Mohamed Elneny and Jurrien Timber are long-term absences and won't play a part.

For the Dutch visitors, Noa Lang is a doubt after coming off injured against NEC, meaning Hirving Lozano could make his second debut for the club.

Luuk de Jong will lead the line, with Armel Bella-Kotchap in contention to start defensively.

It will be interesting to see who ends up between the sticks after Arteta's revolving door at No1 this season.

Should Ramsdale be shunned again, it could lead to interest from other teams knowing he won't want to sit on the bench and put his England place in jeopardy.

Chelsea are known to be admirers of the England stopper and could make a move in January.

They have Robert Sanchez between the sticks but boss

Mauricio Pochettino would see Ramsdale as an upgrade.

Bayern Munich are also interested with Manuel Neuer surely coming towards the end of his career and struggling to come back from a serious leg injury.

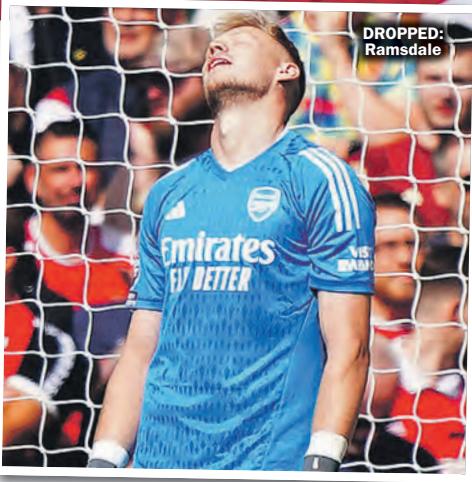

The German legend has met with several setbacks and had to go under the knife again this summer which means he's yet to play this year.

Rebuff

The Gunners will want Ramsdale to stay but, with competition fierce, he knows he needs a No1 shirt to get a place in England's squad for the Euros.

It would cost at least £60m to get Ramsdale away from north London this January and Arsenal are likely to rebuff any moves until the end of the season.

He moved to the Emirates from Sheffield United in 2021 and has won four caps.

HARRY HAPPY WITH BAYERN

HARRY Kane maintains Bayern Munich always felt like the right choice as the England striker prepares to face Man United in the Champions League.

Kane left Tottenham for Bayern in a deal which could be worth up to £100million.

Reports suggested United were one of the English clubs also interested in the 30-year-old forward.

"Obviously over the summer I know there were some talks between a few clubs but Bayern were a team I was really interested and excited by," the England captain said ahead of the Group A opener.

"There were not too many other discussions once they came in. It was between them and Tottenham to talk and then the deal got done."

"My focus is on here. Manchester United are a great club, a really big club as well. I just decided to come here and am really happy I have."

'Hosts' England must qualify for Euro 2028

UEFA want to make England qualify for Euro 2028 – even if they host the tournament!

And it will be the same for Scotland, Wales, Ireland and Northern Ireland too.

The four British nations and the Irish have launched a joint bid to host the tournament – and they are massive favourites to succeed.

But UEFA don't want to give up five automatic qualification spots for the host nations. Instead, they will have to go through qualifiers as usual.

By JOHN ANTHONY

Should any of the hosts fail to qualify, TWO of them will be offered a place in the finals.

But if more than two fail to qualify through the groups, the hosts with the worst record will miss out.

It could make for a very strange tournament if one or more of the hosts aren't taking part.

Turkey have pulled out of the race to host Euro 2028 so Britain and Ireland will be named as the winners by UEFA next month.

There will be games in Dublin, Belfast, Cardiff, Glasgow as well as Spurs, Everton's new ground, Newcastle, Manchester City and Villa Park. Wembley completes the set of iconic venues that will host the games.
